Our Quarrel with Denmark. Tax news of the Fall of Sevastopol has so swallowed up every other item by the steemers Washington and America, that we have hardly thought of our own difficulty with Denmark. The tremendous din and glere in the direction of the Black See has withdrawn our attention from our speck of a war-cloud alightly lerger than a man's hand, brooding over the mouth of the Beltic. . It is clear that unless somebody backs out, there will be war between the United States and Denmark. The question is, who will take the humiliating step backwards. Not the United States, surely Then, will Denmerk clear the track Office in Rodgers' Block, Rail Road street, in when the bell rings? The tenor of the the room formerly occupied by Dr. A. C. Swartzlatest news is that she will. She is re-ceiving less sympathy than she had ap-perently calculated upon from France and England. The "Order of the Ele phant," bestowed upon Louis Napoleon, did not make him anxious to see the more extraordinary animal that uncle Railroad Streets, second floor. Sem might have in his menagerie -Denmark is more intimately related in blood, sympathy, and interest with Russia than with the Western powers, and unless the colossal proportions of the Czar's dominions and power are to be emezingly reduced in this war, it would be idiotic for Denmark to join the allies against her even to save her precious "Sound Dues." Denmark already apparently begins to comprehend her position. As evidence of this tendency, a letter from Berlin, in the Augsburg Gazette, states that the Danish Government has declareh itself willing to reduce the Sound Dues for all countries .- [Cincinnati Commercial.
